

Peterborough

Where are we?

Peterborough is in England in an area called East Anglia. It is mid-way between the East Coast and the Midlands.

Peterborough is easy to get to from all over the UK and overseas.

By Car

You can travel to Peterborough on the A1 (M) for north-south journeys and the A14 and A47 east-west routes. Peterborough is just 80 miles (128 km) from London and 40 miles (64 km) from Cambridge.

Out and About in Peterborough

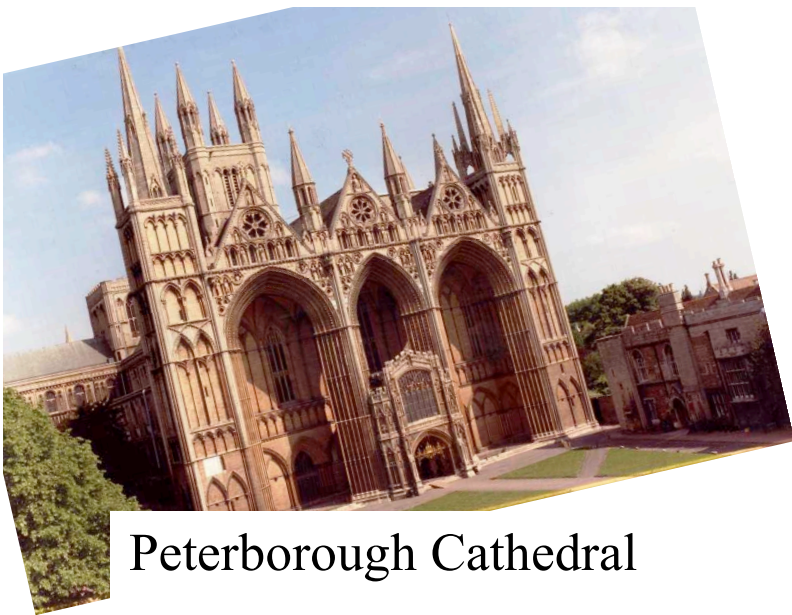

PUFC

Peterborough United Football Club, also called “The Posh” are our local football team. Their ground is at London Road. Manager Darren Ferguson is the son of Manchester Utd’s famous manager, Sir Alex Ferguson. PUFC are in league division two, but are doing really well this season and look set to be promoted to division one.

Orton Weir

This is the River Nene, which is the river that goes through Peterborough. People keep houseboats and narrow boats here at the weir and canoeists compete in races. The lock gates make the water very quick. It is very, very cold.

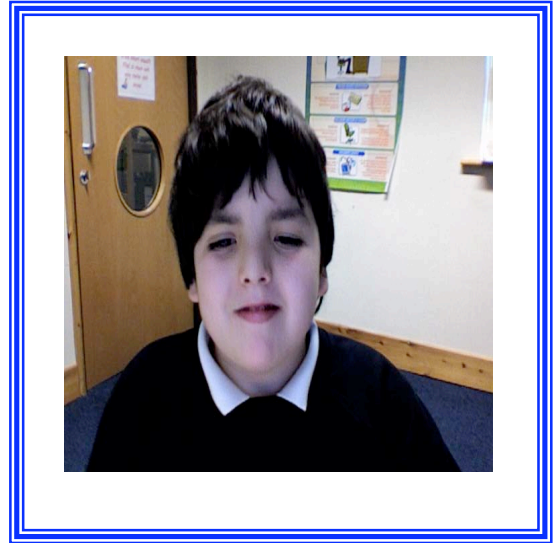

Peterborough Cathedral

Peterborough Cathedral was first built in 655 AD. It has been destroyed and re-built many times. It started as an abbey and church then became a cathedral in 1541.
